20th Anniversary of “The Nutcracker” in West Valley City

WHAT: 20th annual production of “The Nutcracker” by Miss Margene’s Creative Generation Dance Company

WHEN: December 5th and 6th, 7:00 p.m.

WHERE: Hunter High School, 4200 South 5600 West

WHO: Everyone is invited. All tickets are $4 at the door.

WHY: For the past 20 years, more than 22,000 children have had the opportunity to perform in “The Nutcracker,” presented by Miss Margene’s Creative Generation Dance Company. This year, the West Valley City Arts Council is pleased to present the 20th annual production. The creative, modern dance production will feature more than 300 dancers. Special effects include a 25-foot growing Christmas tree, an incredible presentation of Mother Buffoon, snow, and fog.

The production is sponsored in part by the West Valley City Arts Council and is directed and choreographed by Margene Conde.

“It has been a joy to direct this production in West Valley City for the past 20 years,” says Director Margene Conde. “This performance has become a very special tradition for many performers from previous productions, as they now have children performing in “The Nutcracker.”
